CAC Program Scholarship Application

This scholarship is available to anyone, without discrimination, who wishes to participate in a CAC-sponsored program but needs financial assistance in order to meet program fees. Scholarships do not cover CAC membership fees, which are required in order to participate in a CAC program.

This scholarship application may be submitted to the Creative Arts Council at any time for any CAC-sponsored program. It will be evaluated as quickly as possible on an as-needed basis by the CAC Scholarship Committee.

You may submit your application and supporting materials by mail to CAC, PO Box 1164, Eureka, MT 59917 or by dropping them off in the Drop Box outside the front door of the CAC at 300 1st West, Eureka, MT, or by scanning them and emailing them to info@eurekaartsandhistory.org, or by calling the office at (406) 297-3270 and arranging for a private meeting with the Facility Director.

CAC Program Scholarships are awarded not to students but to sponsored Program Directors. If your application is approved, you and your Program Director will be notified, and your Program Director will apply your award to your program fees.

Please know that your application will be assessed on the basis of financial or personal need and program engagement. The CAC Program Scholarship is intended to help those who are most passionate about their endeavor but least able financially or otherwise to enjoy it.

The following information will be considered confidential by the CAC Program Scholarship committee and treated accordingly.
